

This is my first time to ever write a comment to the FCC. But I feel so strongly about this issue that I am taking the time out of my busy day to send this to you hoping that my voice will be heard and I can make a difference.

It scares me to see how big media is suffocating journalism and democracy itself by Sinclair forcing his stations to show "stolen honor". Using the public airwaves free of charge, who by the way are obligated by law to serve the public interest, is a abuse of power.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
